2. Merely because provision under Section 309 of Cr.P.C. requires speedy disposal of the matter after framing of the charge, there is nothing placed on record to justify a special treatment to be given to the petitioner's case when there are number of other cases pending for disposal before the Court below. The disposal of the cases has to be done based on the decision taken by the concerned Judge for appropriate disposal of the matters alloted to each Judge. There is nothing on record to disclose that there is deliberate attempt on the part of the concerned Court to delay the matter. In the circumstances, there is no justification for giving any direction as such to expedite the matter in the petitioner's case. Hence, petition is rejected.

3. As regards the Criminal Writ Petition No.2893/2005 is concerned, the same be filed in terms of Article-227 of the Constitution of India. It will have to be placed before the learned single Judge.
